

McK-V Inquirer

A monthly digest of helpful tips and resources for serving children and youth experiencing homelessness

2/28/2014

Welcome to the first edition of the McK-V Inquirer.

In these pages we hope to provide helpful tips, resources and information on upcoming events, related to serving homeless children and youth in a highly digested form that will allow all of those interested an opportunity to explore further.

We hope that you find the Inquirer useful and we welcome feedback.

For questions or more information we encourage you to post to the server through which you received this message or contact:

Helpful Resource

NAEHCY Podcasts: HIGHER EDUCATION

In an effort to provide succinct and readily accessible information about college access and success for young people experiencing homelessness, the NAEHCY Higher Education Committee is releasing a monthly higher education podcast. Please check back each month to access the newest podcast.

Early Childhood Focus

<http://center.serve.org/nche/downloads/briefs/early-childhood.pdf>

This brief from the Nation Center for Homeless Education focuses on best practices for serving young homeless children.

Local Flavor

We are looking to districts and other programs in Wisconsin who are serving homeless families, children and youth to share their own success stories. Please send your one to two paragraph story to coriedavis1961@gmail.com and watch for your story to appear in an upcoming edition.
