McK-V Inquirer

A monthly digest of helpful tips and resources for serving children and youth experiencing poverty, hunger and homelessness.

6/5/2014

As many of you prepare to enter into the summer vacation season, it is important to remember that the issues facing homeless children and youth never take a vacation. This month's issue provides information on Summer Food Program locations and stories of graduation success among some of our most vulnerable children and youth.

June Tip

To learn more about the Summer Food Program locations in your community, visit the USDA's Summer Food Program page.

Many more children qualify for Head Start than those who actually applying. Be sure to refer families to the Head Start in your area. To find out who provides Head Start services in your area visit the Wisconsin Head Start Association web page.

Many partners play a role in supporting young homeless children. These collaborations and individual partnerships within these networks can expand an agency's capacity to meet the needs of families and children experiencing homelessness. This includes, but is not limited to:

- Local early intervention or early learning councils;
- Head Start and Early Head Start programs;
- Local child care providers;
- HUD Continuums of Care;
- Domestic violence shelters;
- Homeless coalitions; and
- Child Care Resource and Referral Agencies.
