

Steps to becoming WI Pyramid Model program-wide implementation site

Program-wide adoption of the Pyramid Model refers to a systematic and intentional effort within a program to implement Pyramid Model practices.

Program-wide implementation is the most effective way to change practice, reduce challenging behaviors, and support social and emotional development of all children in your program.

1. Attend 8-part training series
2. Get administrator and staff buy-in
3. Determine members of your program leadership team
4. Submit your application. Applications for the new cohort will be posted on the Pyramid Model web-page
5. Application will be reviewed and your program's readiness will be determined by a review committee
6. External coaching support is secured
7. Program leadership team attend Pyramid Model Implementation Academy
8. Program leadership team works with the external coach to implement the Pyramid Model in the program
